Experience It! Gettysburg

On this hallowed ground, in a small Pennsylvania town in 1863, two armies met to decide the fate of a nation. After his victory at Chancellorsville, Robert E. Lee set out to invade the North and was met by the Army of the Potomac. The brutal encounter that followed became known as the Battle of Gettysburg. Join us as we explore the battlefield on a guided tour that brings to life these dramatic events. Watch as the stories you may have heard in history class about Little Round Top and Pickett's Charge come to life.
